

ArtsWorcester Exhibition Venues

ArtsWorcester

East and West Galleries
44 Portland Street, Worcester

Our galleries are a state-of-the-art venue in a historic building, with nearly 2,000 square feet of exhibition space. We offer complete physical accessibility and professional installation materials including museum-quality lighting, audio visual capacity, and plywood wall backings allowing for heavy works. Moveable walls and full-length window treatments radically transform the space for each show. Exhibitions in this space are celebrated with a public opening reception, and gallery hours are open to the public.

ArtsWorcester at the Davis Art Gallery

44 Portland Street, Third Floor, Worcester

The newly-renovated Davis Art Gallery is located on the third floor of the Printers Building. ArtsWorcester proudly programs exhibitions bi-annually in this space operated by Davis Publications. Flooded with natural light, its hardwood floors, pristine walls, and new lighting system are ideal for new and traditional media, craft, performance, and site-specific installations. Exhibitions in this space are celebrated with a public opening reception, and gallery hours are open to the public.

ArtsWorcester at The Hanover Theatre

Franklin Square Salon Gallery, 2 Southbridge Street, Worcester

The Franklin Square Salon Gallery at The Hanover Theatre is a high-ceilinged, historic room featuring refined architecture, and used by over five thousand visitors each year. It requires two-dimensional, medium- to large-scale artwork appropriate for all audiences, including the supporters and corporate partners of The Hanover Theatre. All artworks exhibited in this space are installed using a secured Arakawa hanging system and D-rings. Exhibitions at the Franklin Square Salon Gallery are celebrated with public opening receptions, after which free private viewings are available by appointment.

Art at Work

Unum, 1 Mercantile Street, Worcester

The Mercantile Center, 100 Front Street, Worcester

The Hanover Insurance, 440 Lincoln Street, Worcester

Our corporate art program places paintings, photographs, collages and mixed-media artworks into downtown businesses, activating environments, injecting creativity into the workplace, and benefiting clients, customers, employees, and artists alike. These spaces require two-dimensional works appropriate for all audiences. Unum can also take large, free-standing sculptures. Wall-hanging artworks exhibited in these spaces are installed using a secured Arakawa hanging system and D-rings. Unum and The Hanover Insurance are private offices closed to the public. The Mercantile Center is our only corporate venue open to the public.

Works appropriate for business settings will be considered for all corporate clients. Artists in our corporate art program receive loan fees for artwork exhibited. Fees are determined according to client contract and artwork size.
