why ArtsWorcester?

A state-of-the-art exhibition space in a historic downtown building, ArtsWorcester is free, open, and accessible to all—with new shows on view every six to eight weeks.

Evening openings, with hundreds in attendance, are a favorite among young adults while our compact galleries welcome families with young children in the daytime. Novice and experienced gallery visitors alike visit ArtsWorcester, either as a stand-alone destination or along with Worcester's other cultural offerings located within a block of the Common. We broaden the range of entertainment and retail options for everyone who lives, works, and plays in this city.

Whether they sculpt, take photographs, or create video installations, the artists we promote and the work they make have one thing in common: this city. Their work grounds us here. The conversations it spurs, and the people it draws, encourage innovation, growth, and pride.

Equitable access to arts and culture tie people to the places where they live, and attract new people to the area. More than any other urban amenity, excellent artistic experiences increase individual investment in communities, as seen in purchasing patterns, philanthropy, and volunteerism. Whether people come to Worcester to socialize, learn, or both, your support provides them with high-quality, accessible artistic experiences, and another great reason to call Worcester home.
