

The Twenty-Second Annual College Show

ArtsWorcester, Worcester, MA

February 12 - April 12, 2026

Carry Me Home, Andrea Olmstead

Meet the juror: Andrea Olmstead

Andrea received her BFA in drawing from Florida State University and an MFA in sculpture from Massachusetts College of Art and Design. Her primary focus is traditional figurative ceramic sculpture and drawing. She is an Associate Professor of Art in ceramics, sculpture, and drawing at Fitchburg State University.

Andrea shows her work both regionally and nationally. She has been featured with other ceramic artists in several State of Clay exhibits and in Clay Has It's Say, at Concord Art Association with other nationally recognized ceramic artists. Andrea is a member of the New England Sculptors Association. She has won prizes in the Danforth Art Museum's Art Annual, ArtsWorcester's Seventh Annual One, and State of Clay exhibits.

Andrea's work was also featured in a three-person show, They Travel Together, which has been exhibited at The Grimshaw-Gudewicz Gallery, Maud Morgan Arts Chandler Gallery, and ArtsWorcester.

info@artsworcester.org // 508-755-5142

www.artsworcester.org